Informatii utile

Gastronomy is extremely diverse and representative for this Euro-region.

The mixture of different traditional cuisines, specific to the ethnicities which have peacefully cohabited in this region for hundreds of years made the cuisine from Banat one of the most varied cuisines of the world.

One of the most expressive forms that carry on the myth of Banat's paradisiacal interethnicity is the feast (laic or religious), whose main unifying and pacifying message is transmitted through the culinary code.

Beside the wines, the tram museum is an interesting touristic colour patch in Ghioroc.

Visitors and wine lovers can take a look at the cellars and barrels ripening unique wines on an old farm.
